Mrs. Peter Collier Active Church Worker

Following an illness of three months' duration, Amanda Jane Welbanks, wife of the late Peter Collier, passed away at Rest Haven Nursing Home, Picton, on March 6, 1962.

Born at South Bay on August 8, 1877, she was the daughter of Louis Welbanks and his wife, nee Margaret Farrington. She lived on the farm at South Bay until 1923, then moving to Picton and residing at 45 Queen Street until injuries suffered in a fall forced her to give up her home.

Mrs. Collier was a wonderful home-maker and one who was always thinking of others.

A member of the United Church, she took an active interest in the W.M.S., W.A. and W.C.T.U. A lady of many fine qualities, she will be greatly missed.

Peter Collier, to whom she was married 64 years, passed away in June, 1960. A brother, Albert Welbanks of South Bay, died in 1956.

Surviving are, two sons, Everett of Brantford, and Alva Collier of Picton; sisters, Mrs. John Murphy (Stella), South Bay, Mrs. Earl McIntosh

(Annie), South Bay, Mrs. Durwood Reid (Florence), Bloomfield, and Mildred in Detroit, Michigan.

Service at the G. M. Hicks and Son Funeral Home on Monday, March 19 was conducted by Rev. V. E. R. Zufelt. Entombment Cherry Valley Vault. Pall bearers were nephews, Karl Murphy, Rupert Murphy, Don Welbanks, Louis Reid, William Pullen and Leslie Bath. Lovely floral tributes included those from Prince Edward Lodge, A.F. and A.M., No. 18, Prince Edward County Fruit Growers, neighbors and friends.

Contributions to the Canadian Cancer Society campaign help control cancer in three ways: they support research into the fundamental causes of cancer; they provide for a public education program which encourages medical check-ups, especially when new and persistent symptoms of ill health appear; and they allow volunteers to assist cancer patients and contribute to their comfort and happiness in many ways.
